INTERIORS AND FINISHES

Inside, a palette of neutral tones—sand, beige, ivory, and soft grays—provides light and calm. These nuances are enhanced by accents of greens evoking the freshness of the jungle and turquoise reminiscent of the Caribbean Sea, featured in details such as pillows, artwork, and decorative elements.

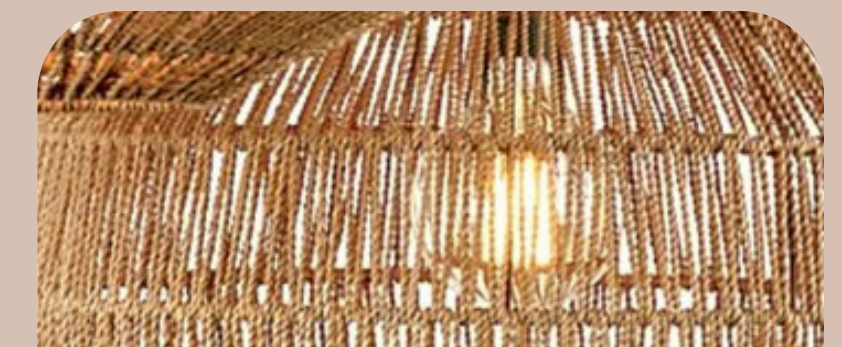

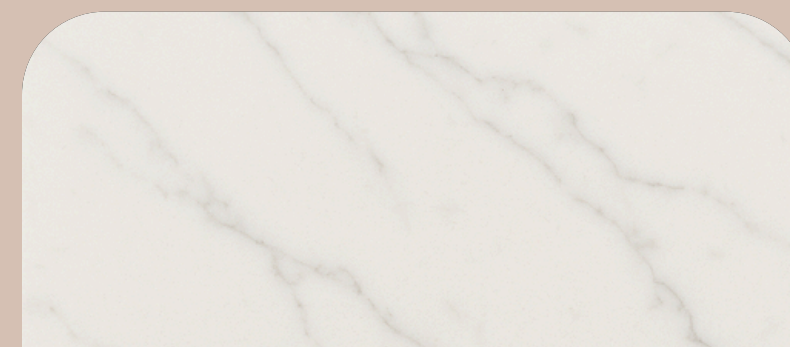

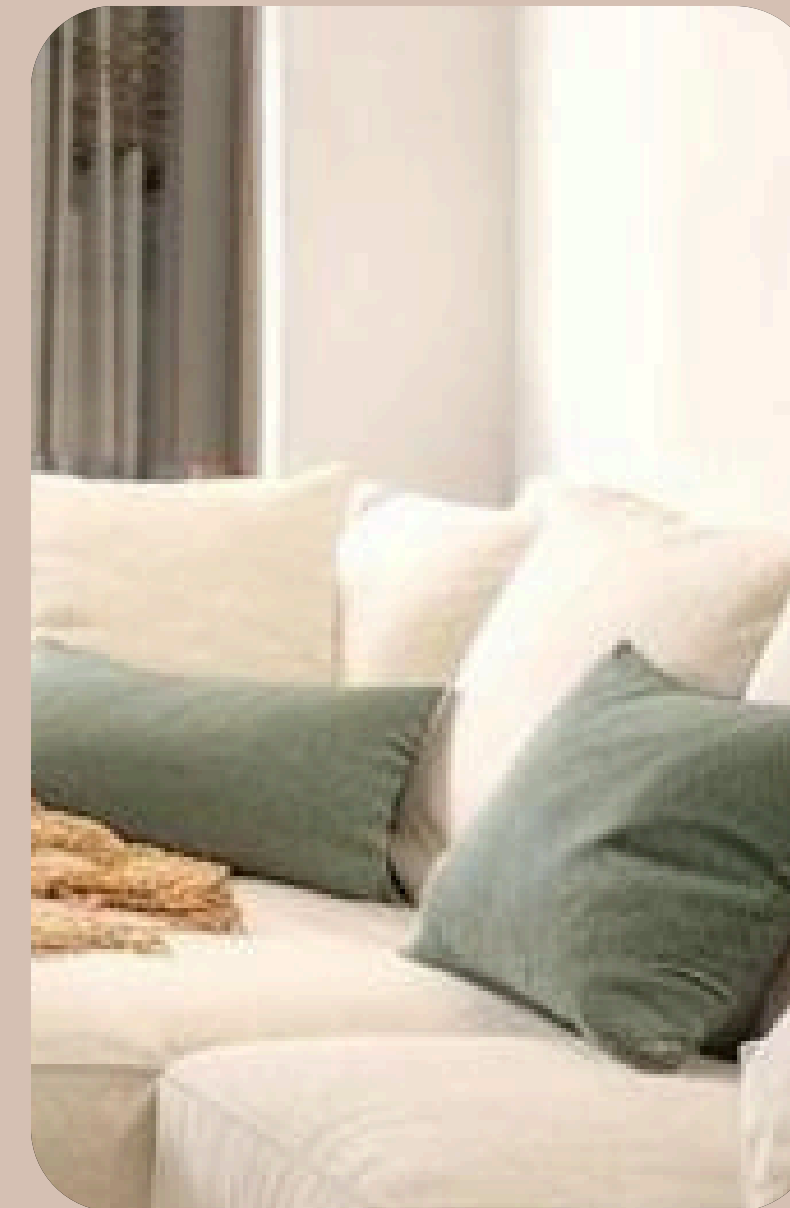

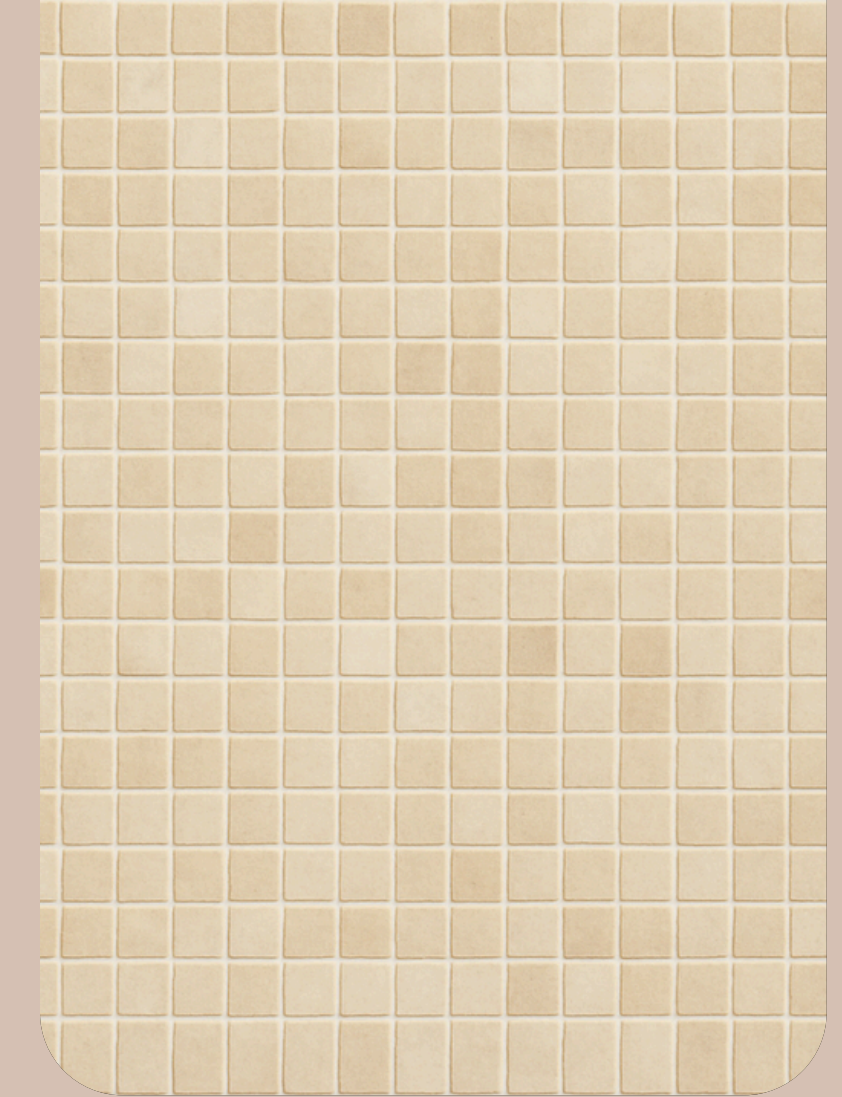

The stone textures are reminiscent of the reefs of the Riviera Maya, while the wood and natural fibers in the furniture create a handcrafted and contemporary atmosphere.

The design also integrates woven lamps, soft textiles, and organic details that bring warmth and a unique character to each space.

Indoor vegetation connects the home with tropical freshness, while large windows and terraces allow natural light and ocean views to become part of the everyday experience.

Costalina transforms into a sophisticated and serene retreat, just steps from the beach.
